

https://thebrunswicknews.com/community_life/glynn-environmental-coalition-coordinates-fly-over-of-glynn-county-superfund/article_8f0dbde1-f347-526e-bf56-95adea34c88b.html

Glynn Environmental Coalition coordinates fly over of Glynn County Superfund Sites

Rachael Thompson Dec 12, 2018

Buy Now

Submitted by Rachael Thompson

Environmental professionals were treated to a fly over of Glynn County Superfund Sites last week. Volunteer pilot Roy Brewer flew Glynn Environmental Coalition and EPA Region 4 staff over the legacy contamination sites to help them better understand the complexity of the sites and the holistic remediation efforts necessary for cleaning them up. The flight was coordinated by the Glynn Environmental Coalition with SouthWings, a nonprofit whose mission is to protect and restore the ecosystems of the southeastern U.S. through flight. Pictured are Roy Brewer, SouthWings volunteer pilot, from left; Rachael Thompson, Glynn Environmental Coalition project manager; Rob Pope, EPA Region 4 remedial project manager; and Frank Anastasi, Glynn County Community Technical Advisor.